The insurer of the policy is Evolution Insurance Company Limited.

Type of Insurance and Cover

The Absent Landlord indemnity policy has been specifically designed for the situation where the landlord of a single private dwelling is missing, unresponsive or insolvent and you are unable to obtain clear ground rent receipts at the date of purchase. The landlord or its successor may subsequently reappear and make a claim against you.

Key Covers, Features and Exceptions

Your policy includes the following key covers, features and exceptions, which are detailed in your policy document.

Covers, Features and Benefits

GCS Instant Issue Absent Landlord Indemnity

If the landlord claims for:

- rent arrears at the date cover commenced, but only where the landlord was missing
- unknown breaches of leasehold covenants
- and/or they exercise a consequent right of re-entry into the property as a direct result of:

- the seller failing to produce clear ground rent receipts
- the breach of any terms of the lease which are preconditions to the assignment of the lease to you the policy provides cover, up to the limit of indemnity shown in the policy schedule.

The limit of indemnity under the policy automatically increases by 5% per annum for a period of 10 years.

The policy automatically covers your mortgage lender, subsequent owners and their lenders.

The interest of any insured will not be prejudiced by any act, omission or misrepresentation by any other party unless such party acted on their behalf or with their knowledge or consent.

Exceptions and Limitations

Please refer to the Conditions and Provisos in the policy document

- Neither you nor anyone acting on your behalf will disclose the existence of the policy other than to purchasers of the property and their mortgage lenders.

The policy does not cover loss:

- arising from unpaid ground rent where the landlord is not missing at the date of commencement of cover
- arising from breaches of covenant known to you at the date of commencement of cover except non-payment of rent and any preconditions to assignment
- arising from use other than as a single house or flat
- unless, where appropriate, you apply to the court to protect your interest in the property
- unless you have taken reasonable steps to contact the absent landlord prior to the commencement of cover
- arising from any attempt made by you, or anyone acting on your behalf, to contact or locate a missing landlord after commencement of cover.

Fair Presentation

Before the policy starts and whenever it is renewed or changed, you must take care to ensure information provided to us which is relevant to this cover is accurate. If you have taken out the policy for business purposes, you must also disclose sufficient information to ensure a fair presentation of the risk is made. Failure to do so could invalidate the policy or lead to a claim not being paid in full or at all.

Duration of Policy

The policy will remain in force without limit in time from the commencement date of the policy.

Right of Cancellation

If you are an individual buying a policy which provides cover for you in a private capacity, you may cancel this policy within 14 days of its conclusion or receipt of the policy document. To cancel you should contact the person who arranged the cover. You will be entitled to a refund of the premium paid less a deduction based upon the duration of cover provided unless a claim becomes payable under the policy prior to cancellation taking effect.

Important – Cancellation may place you in breach of contract in relation to a property sale or mortgage.

Mortgagees – Cancellation by any other insured will not affect the rights of any mortgage lender unless the mortgage lender is aware of or agreed to the cancellation of the policy.
