

GCS “INSTANT ISSUE” BUILDING STANDARDS POLICY SUMMARY

This is a summary of the policy and does not contain the full terms and conditions of the cover, which can be found in the policy document. It is important that you read the policy document carefully when you receive it.

Name of the Insurance Undertaking

The insurer of the policy is Evolution Insurance Company Limited.

Type of Insurance and Cover

The Building Standards indemnity policy has been specifically designed to cover the mortgage lender where there is a lack of evidence that a valid NHBC certificate, or similar warranty, or architect's certificate was given on completion of a newly-built house or flat over which the mortgage lender intends to take a mortgage.

Important: The policy does not cover the buyer or owner of the property.

Key Covers, Features and Exceptions

The policy includes the following key covers, features and exceptions, which are detailed in your policy document.

Covers, Features and Benefits

GCS Instant Issue Building Standards Indemnity

- The amount by which the mortgage advance secured against the property exceeds the market value of the property.

The policy does not provide any cover for the owner of the property. The policy covers the property-owner's mortgage lender and mortgage lenders of subsequent owners of the property.

The interest of any insured will not be prejudiced by any act, omission or misrepresentation by any other party unless such party acted on their behalf or with their knowledge or consent.

Exceptions and Limitations

Please refer to the Conditions and Provisos in the policy document

- Neither you nor anyone acting on your behalf will disclose the existence of the policy other than to purchasers of the property and their mortgage lenders.

The policy does not cover any loss:

- if the property has not been occupied for at least 2 years prior to the date on which the cover commences by a buyer who bought the property in good faith from a seller to whom the buyer is neither related nor otherwise connected
- that would not be recoverable under the terms of a valid National House-Building Council guarantee, or such other Building Standards Indemnity or Professional Consultant's Certificate as is defined in the policy, issued on practical completion of the construction or conversion of the property
- any structural defects that are disclosed in a structural survey, homebuyer's report or mortgage valuation report carried out before the date on which cover commences
- that is the direct result of any alteration, addition or extension to the property carried out after the property was built or converted
- if the property is used for any purpose other than a single private house or flat.

Fair Presentation

Before the policy starts and whenever it is renewed or changed, you must take care to ensure information provided to us which is relevant to this cover is accurate. If you have taken out the policy for business purposes, you must also disclose sufficient information to ensure a fair presentation of the risk is made. Failure to do so could invalidate the policy or lead to a claim not being paid in full or at all.

Duration of Policy

The policy will remain in force for the benefit of mortgage lenders without limit in time from the commencement date of the policy.

Right of Cancellation

If you are an individual buying a policy which provides cover for you in a private capacity, you may cancel this policy within 14 days of its conclusion or receipt of the policy document. To cancel you should contact the person who arranged the cover. You will be entitled to a refund of the premium paid less a deduction based upon the duration of cover provided unless a claim becomes payable under the policy prior to cancellation taking effect.

Important – Cancellation may place you in breach of contract in relation to a property sale or mortgage.

Mortgagees – Cancellation by any other insured will not affect the rights of any mortgage lender unless the mortgage lender is aware of or agreed to the cancellation of the policy.
