CHOICE OF LAW

The law of England and Wales will apply to this contract unless you and the Insurer agree otherwise.

CONDITIONS

1. The liability of the Insurer to make any payment under this Policy will be conditional upon compliance with the terms and Conditions of this Policy. If the Insured fails to comply with any such term or Condition, the Insurer will not pay the claim, except where compliance with the term tends to reduce the likelihood of a Loss of a particular kind, in which case the Insurer will pay for any claim where the Insured shows that its failure to comply did not cause, contribute or make worse the Loss which occurred. The Insurer will not unreasonably reject a claim.
2. The Insured shall give immediate notice to the Insurer of any circumstances likely to give rise to a claim and, at the expense of the Insurer, shall do and concur in doing and permit to be done all things necessary to minimise the Loss.
3. The Insured shall not make any admission of liability, offer, promise or payment or incur any costs or expenses without the prior written consent of the Insurer.
4. If any difference shall arise as to the amount to be paid under this Policy (liability being otherwise admitted) such difference shall be referred to an arbitrator to be appointed by the parties in accordance with the Arbitration Act 1996 or current equivalent. The Insured shall have no right of action against the Insurer under this condition until an arbitration award has been made.
5. If, at the time of any Loss resulting in a claim under this Policy, any other insurance taken out by or on behalf of the Insured or any other person covers the same Loss or any part of it, or would cover it but for the existence of this Policy, the Insurer's liability under this Policy shall be limited to its rateable proportion of such Loss.
6. If a claim is in any way fraudulent or if the Insured deliberately causes a Loss, the Insurer will refuse to pay the whole of the claim and recover from the Insured any sums that it has already paid in respect of the claim. The Insurer may also by notice to the Insured treat the Policy as having terminated with effect from the time of the fraudulent act. No premium will be refunded if the Policy is terminated.
7. Before the Policy starts and whenever it is changed, the Insured must take care to ensure information provided to the Insurer which is relevant to this cover is accurate. If the Insured has taken out this Policy for business purposes, the Insured must also disclose sufficient information to ensure a fair presentation of the risk is made to the Insurer. Failure to do so could invalidate the Policy or lead to a claim not being paid in full or at all.
8. This Policy shall not be in force unless it has been signed by a person so authorised by the Insurer.
